

Issue No:4

Dear Friends,

The entire legal fraternity in Tamil Nadu is bleeding in its hearts. They have witnessed the gravest form of disregard to the Judiciary in the Madras High Court. The Police attack on Judges, Lawyers, Court Halls etc., can not be considered as an attack on the personal involved. It is an attack on the judicial system. The few questions that remain unanswered are a) Why was this attack especially on Judges, Courts etc.?, b) Why High Court does not have surveillance camera fixed? c) Why the Registrar has not given a press statement stating the damages done to the property of the Court.? d) Where were the security personals of the Judges when the Judges were attacked? Hope we get an answer to these.

One wrong (assuming there is one) can not be justified by another. CNICA condemns the atrocities committed against the judiciary. It is high time, democracy is restored in India. Instead of complaining lets join hands to find and implement solutions.
